

BANK OF ENGLAND

The UK's productivity growth challenge

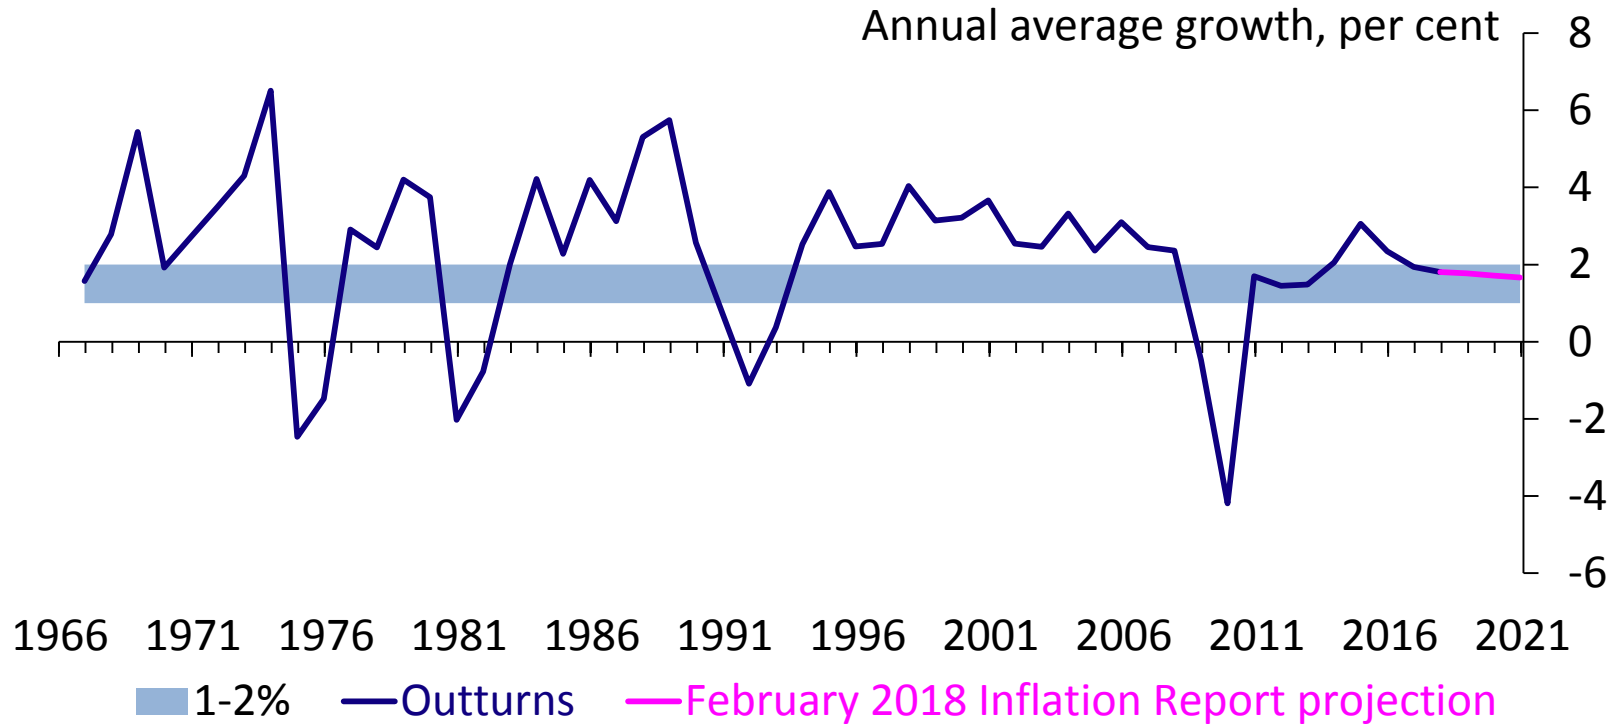

Dave Ramsden

Deputy Governor for Markets and Banking

Babraham Hall, Cambridge

23rd February 2018

1. UK GDP growth

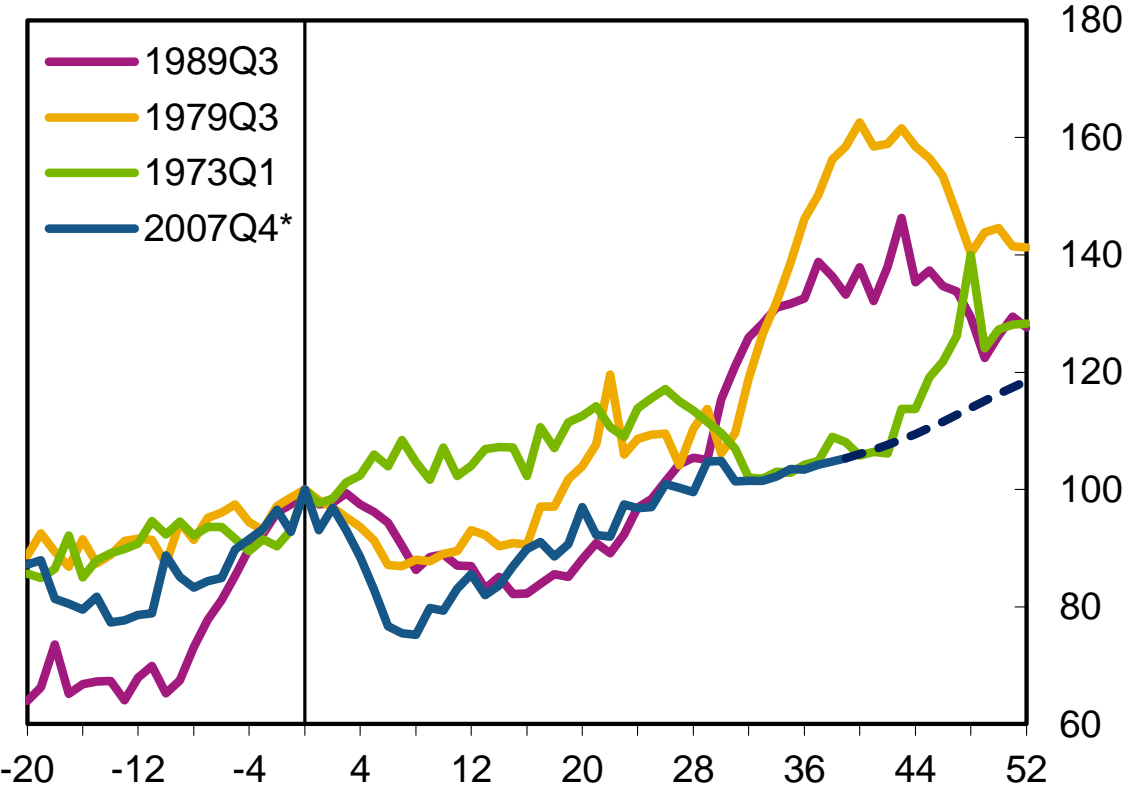

Sources: ONS and Bank of England

BANK OF ENGLAND

2. UK business investment cycles

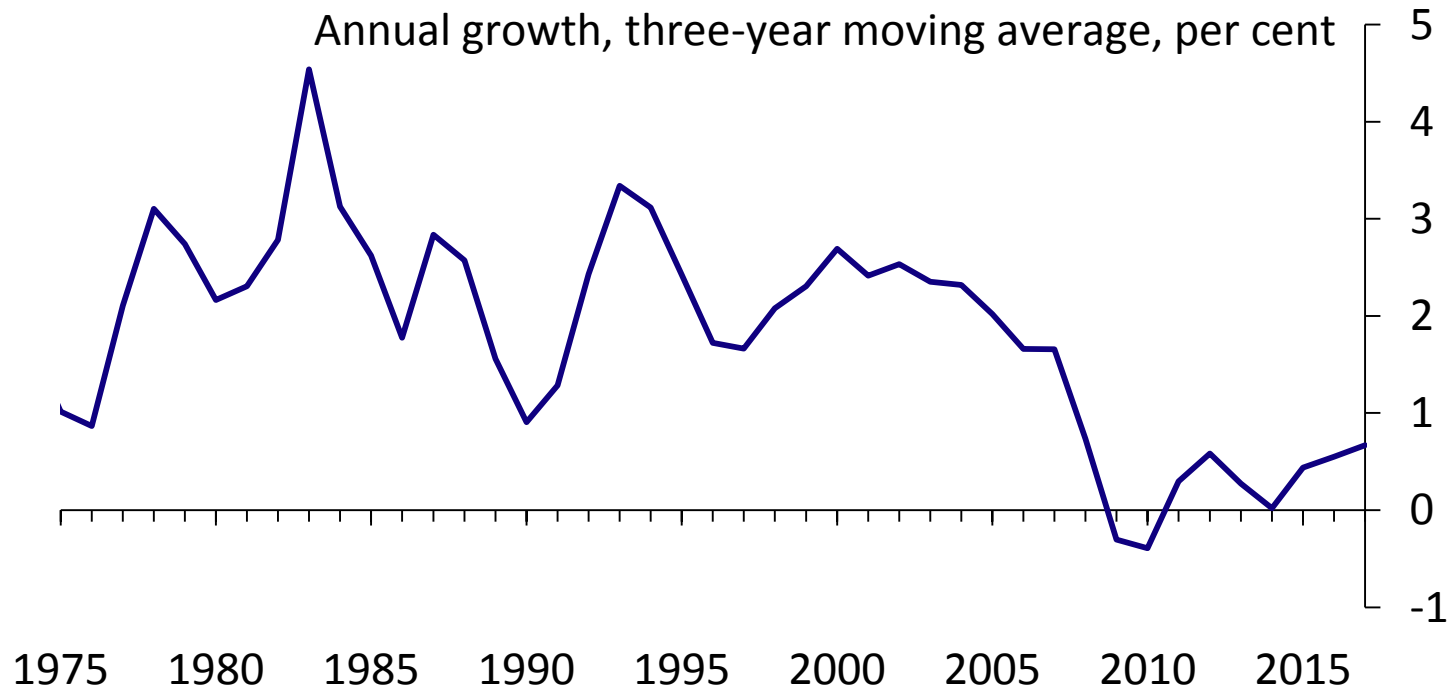

Sources: ONS and Bank of England

Vertical axis is indexed to 100 at time 0. Horizontal axis shows the quarters prior to, and since, the peak level of business investment.

* Dashed blue line shows the MPC's February 2018 Inflation Report projection

3. UK annual productivity growth (GDP per hour worked)

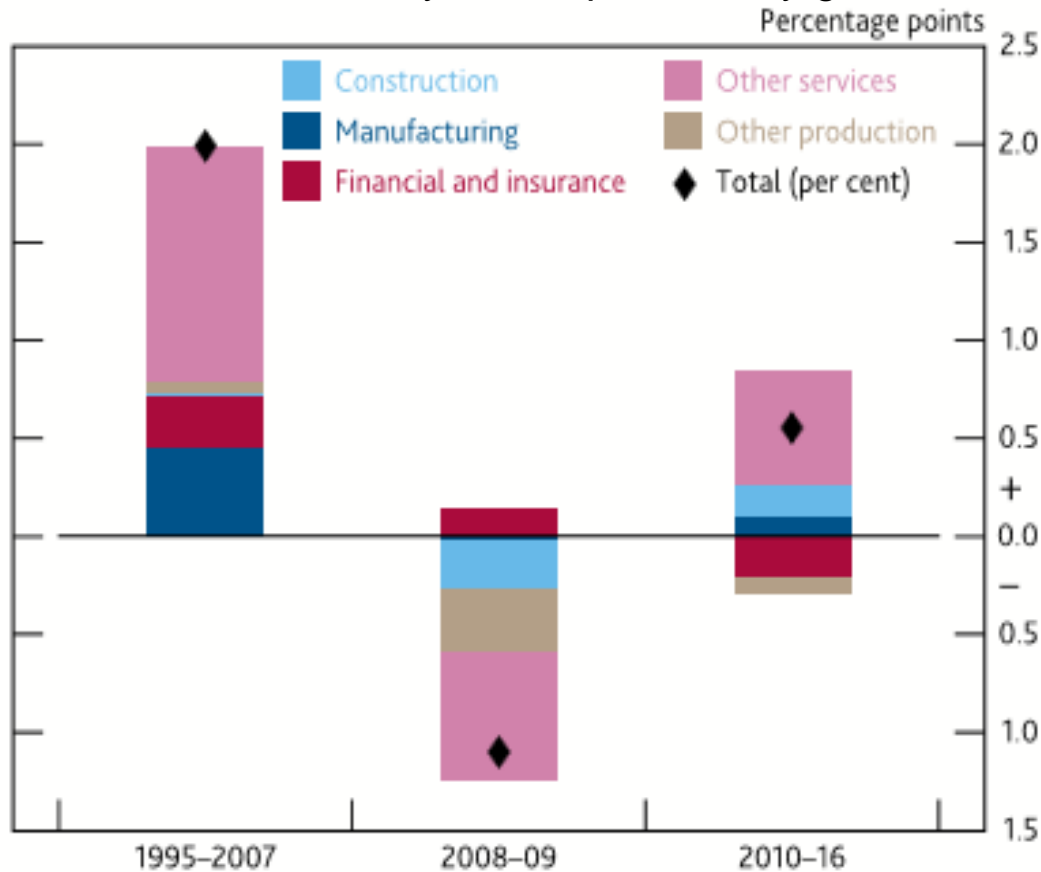

Source: ONS

4. Sectoral contributions to productivity growth

Contributions to hourly labour productivity growth*

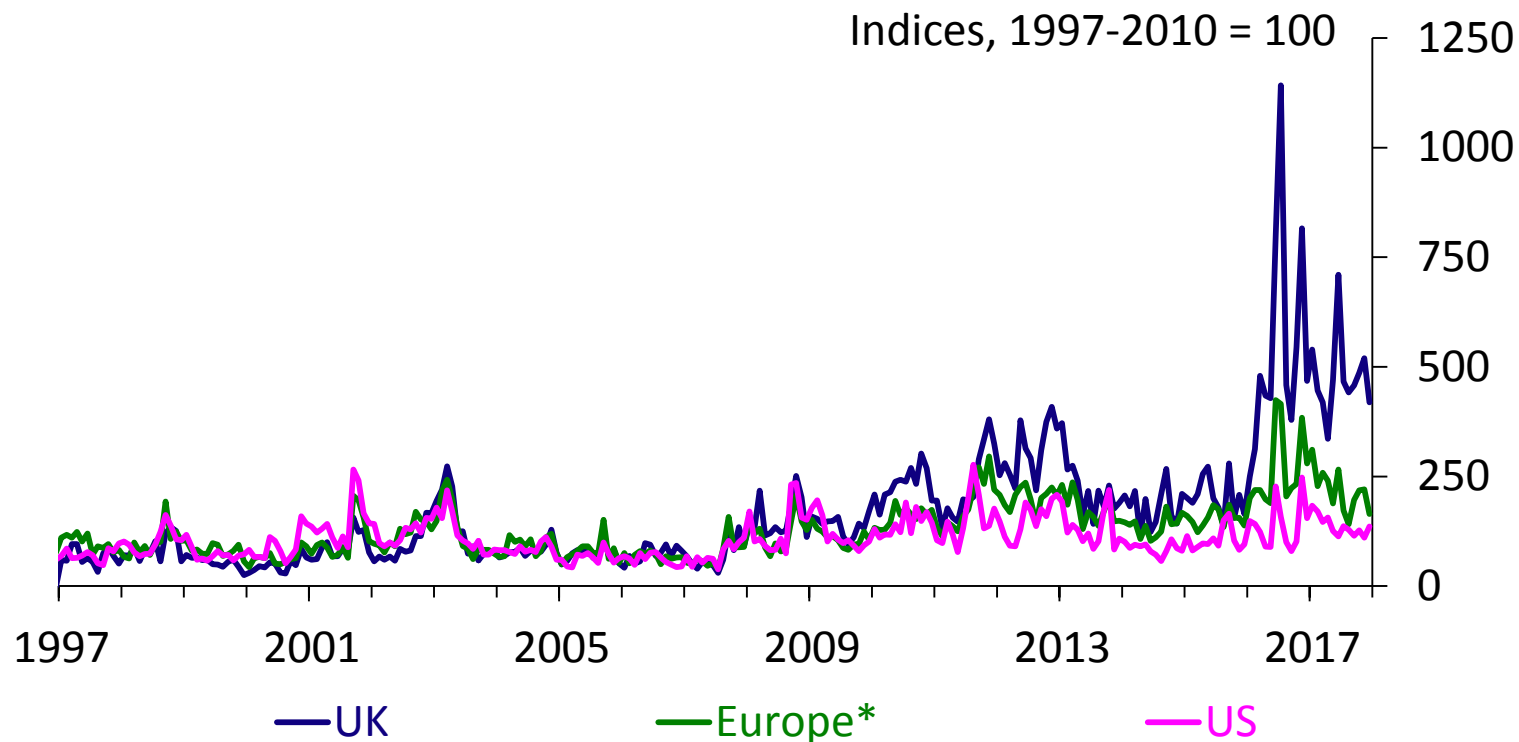

Sources: ONS and Bank calculations

* Annual averages. Sectoral output per hour is calculated as gross value added divided by hours worked.

5. News-based policy uncertainty indices

Source: "Measuring Economic Policy Uncertainty" by Scott R. Baker, Nicholas Bloom and Steven J. Davis at www.PolicyUncertainty.com

* Constructed using newspapers from France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the UK.

6. UK annual productivity growth (GDP per hour worked)*

Sources: ONS and Bank of England

*Diamonds show the MPC's February 2018 Inflation Report projection (three year moving average)

BANK OF ENGLAND

7. The MPC's February 2018 GDP projection*

Sources: ONS and Bank of England

* Based on market interest rate expectations, other policy measures as announced

BANK OF ENGLAND

8. The Bank and new technologies

CENTRAL BANKING

Initiative of the year: Bank of England's FinTech Accelerator

The UK central bank has embraced fintech service providers in a controlled manner to bolster its cyber-security and payments capabilities

FINANCIAL TIMES

BoE to develop 'next generation' payments system

Bank of England successfully tests new payment method

'Interledger' programme synchronises transactions between two central banks

