

TA on operational risk

I agree with the revision of the Description of interest income in Table 1 for better clarity by removing the word "interest" in relation to income from financial and operating leases. I think similar change should also be applied to the Description of interest expenses in Table 1 such that the words in brackets under this Description should read "(includes expense from financial and operating leases,...)".