

Banca Națională
a României

Academia Regală de Științe
Economice și Financiare
a Institutului Spaniei

Academia Română,
Secția de Științe Economice,
Juridice și Sociologie

The nature, functioning and responsibilities of a financial system without physical currency

June 1st - 7th 2026

Sinaia

Opening address by Acad. Prof.univ.dr. Mugur Isărescu, President of the Section of Economic, Legal Studies and Sociology, Romanian Academy

Governor of the National Bank of Romania

Banca Națională
a României

Academia Regală de Științe
Economice și Financiare
a Institutului Spaniei

Academia Română,
Secția de Științe Economice,
Juridice și Sociologie

La Real Academia celebra un Encuentro Técnico con el Banco Nacional de Rumanía

28/05/2026

*Real Academia
de Ciencias Económicas y Financieras*

Monetary policy issues
in an emerging economy.
The case of Romania

Barcelona 2008

Agradecimientos	9
Introduction	11
1. Monetary policy – particularities and limitations for a small open emerging economy	13
2. Price stability and financial stability in the design of monetary policy	16
3. Capital flows and their consequences for the macroeconomic and financial stability	20
3.1. A perspective from theory	20
3.2. Developments in Central and Eastern European countries	22
4. The need for an adequate macroeconomic policy mix	32
5. Case study – capital account liberalization and inflation targeting adoption in Romania	37
6. Conclusions	44
References	47

