

IFC Satellite Seminar (virtual) on "Sustainable finance: data availability and policy needs"

Webinar organised by the IFC and the Netherlands Bank (DNB) on the occasion of the 2021 World Statistical Congress of the ISI

Friday 9 July 2021

Programme

Chair: Fabienne Fortanier, Director, Statistics Division, Netherlands Bank

Presentation of the IFC survey

Christian Schmieder, BIS,
Merve Artman, Central Bank of Turkey,
Elena Triebkorn, Deutsche Bundesbank,
IFC working group

National case studies

• Introduction of the sustainable finance data hub of the Deutsche Bundesbank

Elena Triebkorn, Deutsche Bundesbank

• Revisiting Credit Risk Assessment at Banque de France using ESG data

Vichett Oung, Bank of France

• Towards a Greener Malaysian Financial System

Liris Shamsir, Central Bank of Malaysia

• Progress in Integrated Reporting and Sustainable Finance Data in Turkey

Guler Aras, Yildiz Technical University and Integrated Reporting Network Turkey

Panel discussion: The Role of Central Bank Statistics in Gearing up to the Sustainable Finance Challenge

- Chair: Rashad Cassim, Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank of South Africa and IFC Chair
- Patrick Amis, Director General, Directorate General Specialised Institutions and LSIs, European Central Bank, Network of Central Banks and Supervisors for Greening the Financial System (NGFS)
- Fabienne Fortanier, Director, Statistics Division, Netherlands Bank
- Rupert Thorne, Deputy Secretary General of the Financial Stability Board (FSB)
- Peter Van De Ven, former Head of National Accounts, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)